

Notes from
Fr. Dean

Welcome Fr. Bob Porter, a retired priest of the Diocese, is here to preside at the weekend Masses this weekend and next weekend. Although the Mission Trip Group is not gathering for departure until 4 pm Sunday, Fr. Bob was scheduled last year to cover the two weeks. Thus, I will take the opportunity this weekend to complete some much needed Tribunal work.

Next weekend Fr. Michael R. Deusterhaus will be here to preside at his niece's wedding on Saturday afternoon and has requested to take the 8:00 am Mass. Fr. Bob Porter will have the Mass on Saturday evening and 10:30 am Sunday, plus do the Baptism of Adam Thomas Anderson after Mass. Deacon Tom Walker will be on the Deacon's retreat next weekend.

MISSION TRIP PARTICIPANTS:

The St. Jude Youth Mission Group will be participating in the Shine Catholic Workcamp this week in San Antonio, Texas. Please keep them in your prayers as they grow in faith, serve in love and enjoy making new friendships. The participants include Jarod Altadonna, Anna Auxier, Brice Auxier, Carrie Auxier, Joe Biesiada, Liam Biesiada, Haley Builta, Mario Cannamela, Vince Cannamela, Trevor Cordery, Mary Ann Egizio, Miranda Ernst, Aidan Faloon, Molly Godar, Luke Henson, Brian Johnson, Allie Judy, Jason Judy, Jessica Kulek, Kaitlyn Kulek, Erin Lindstrom, Meghan Lindstrom, Michael Lindstrom, Kyle Lomprez, Taylor McDermott, Evan McMinn, Seth McMinn, Gabrielle Oldani, Courtney Phillips, Fr. Dean Probst, Lynnette Ramsey, Casey Rayhill, Don Rayhill, Jordan Rayhill, Michael Scott, Mike Spainhour, Jenna Spurlock, Haley Thompson, Mary Margaret Tweedt, and David Western. THANKS to John & Shawn Faloon for donating PEPSI Products for the trip.

Parish Center Progress:

Thanks to the various workers this past week, the Parish Center and Classrooms have been freshly painted, carpets cleaned and furniture returned to classrooms. To complete the project of updating the center, the Kitchen and Pantry will be painted next month, and new privacy stalls for bathrooms will be provided. Thanks to all who have volunteered time and energy, food or donations to the parish for updating the Parish Center.

CATECHISTS NEEDED for FALL PSR classes:

- Sunday Kindergarten - Catechist needed
- Sunday 3rd grade - Catechist & Aide needed
- Wednesday 2nd grade - Aide needed
- Wednesday 7th grade - Catechist & Aide needed

If you would be able to serve in one of these roles and would like to talk more about what this entails, please contact Dan Frachey, Director of Christian Formation. If you know of anyone you'd recommend for any of these openings, please share them with him and he will gladly make the call.

NOTE SOME PSR CLASSES ARE FILLED

To observe State of Illinois Fire Marshall guidelines for the maximum people per room; to maintain optimal class management given that the majority of our catechists are volunteers who don't teach as a profession; and limited classroom sizes in the parish center, there is limited number of students per class and day. Registration is on a first come-first served basis...

STEWARDSHIP OF PARISH GROUNDS

Interested in helping with gardening and care of our parish grounds? The group will meet 7 PM Monday and again at 7 AM Wednesday. Bring your own "light weeding tools".

For more information call Leanne Collings, 498-7961

SWEET CORN AVAILABLE:

The parish planted numerous rows of sweet corn as a fundraiser for the Mission Trip. It is available for sale at $3.00/dozen at the parish center. If you want to place an order, call the parish office.

CHECK OUT ST. JUDE'S "FARMERS MARKET"

We have a new sign posted above the St. Jude Farmers Market that will let you know when produce is available. When donors bring produce to share, they will place the green “OPEN” side facing out to let you know. When no produce is available, you'll see the red side of the sign. Even if you have just a small batch of surplus produce items, please consider bringing them in to share.
