

February 25, 2018 2nd Sunday of Lent

I hope that last week's challenge wasn't too difficult! I have to admit that getting to the point of not hitting the snooze each day was a struggle for me, so don't worry if it was a challenge. The good news is that you can put that behind you and move on to the next in the series of our weekly Lenten challenges (though you're more than free to continue the challenges going forward). Here's my invitation to you for this week (WARNING, it's harder than last week)

Challenge: Give up gossip Fruit: Love of neighbor

If our Lenten practices do not lead us to a greater love of neighbor, then we're probably not doing them right. The Lord is very insistent upon this point that we must take very seriously this commandment of loving our neighbor. In fact, on the night of the Last Supper, Jesus instructed His disciples (and us): "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another" (John 13:34). In the Letter from St. James, we hear the following: "Do not speak evil of one another, brothers. Whoever speaks evil of a brother or judges his brother speaks evil of the law and judges the law. If you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge" (James 4:11). Since love of God and neighbor is core to Christianity, and since Lent is about our being purified so as to become better Christians, everything that we do should be done with this end in mind.

It can be so tempting to join in gossip when it starts. Sometimes we engage in it in order to feel included. Sometimes we engage in it because it makes us feel better about ourselves by focusing on the faults of another, rather than our own. Giving up gossip isn't limited to the words we say, but it also involves what we listen to or what we choose to believe when we do hear gossip. Believing in gossip can lead to another deadly vice of making uncharitable judgments about a person.

As I did last week, I'd like to offer a quote from one of our more modern saints on this topic, Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, better known as the Little Flower. She said the following: "Oh, how good a thing and how peaceable it is to be silent of others, nor to believe all that is said, nor easily to report what one has heard!"
